

Media Contacts:

Chauniece Conner
901.591.6165
contact@balletonwheels.org

For Immediate Release

May 4, 2011

“Who Wants to Dance?”

Local Dance School offers Scholarship Audition Opportunity for dance hopefuls

Ballet On Wheels Dance School & Company will be hosting dance scholarship auditions for the upcoming Fall Semester. Auditions will take place at Ballet On Wheels , Evergreen Presbyterian Church, 613 University St. in Memphis on Saturday, June 4 2011 at 11:00 a.m. Auditioning students will need to bring an already prepared dance routine (1.5 minutes or less) and will participate in various dance technique classes as a part of the audition.. If selected, students must be available immediately to participate in multiple, weekly dance classes and other related events as a part of the awarded dance scholarship.

Interested male and female students ages 10 and up are encouraged to audition. At least 1 year previous dance experience preferred, but not required. For more information, call our studio at 901.870.4348 or visit www.balletonwheels.org.

Ballet On Wheels, founded in 2002, is Memphis' only community based, non-profit, classical ballet school and youth dance company. Students receive progressive instruction in the art form and theory of Classical Ballet, Modern, Pointe and Jazz dance genres.

Ballet On Wheels has a class and performance season that begins in August and continues through the end of June. For more information on the upcoming audition, contact Chauniece Conner at 901.870.4348 or visit the website at www.balletonwheels.org.

####